Encouraged by repeated triumphs, the slave power assumes and definally acts upon the assumption that they are within the national domain, and there are no limits to its expansion; that it exists by its own inherent right wherever the laws of our country entered, and it claims that there is no place north or south, within the country, where protection to slave property is not received under the tion to slave property is not received under the House—The House resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Elections, concerning the right of Mr. Kingsbury to a seat as delegate from the territory outside the State of Minnesota.

Mr. Harris, of Ill., said Mr. Kingsbury was elected under the forms of law; and that for Mr. Pheips to claim the seat as delegate from Dacotals, when no such territory is recognized as such, was a piece of presumption and impertinence, and which ought not to be tolerated a moment.

Mr. Washburn, of Me., remarked that the question was whether there is existing the territory of Minnesota, if not, and it is absorbed or destroyed by admission as a State of that name, then Mr. K. is entitled to retain his seat.

The House Select Committee, of which Mr. Florence is Chairman, appointed to investigate the banking appears to justify even suspiction that Mr. Campbell, late P. M. General, was at all interested save in the houset discharged in of ficial duty, and that no improper or corrept influences of presumption and impertinence, and which ought not to be tolerated a moment.
